A Tribute to Veterans at the Capitol Showcases Service Flags, Uniforms

Salem, Ore. – The annual A Tribute to Veterans event has moved to a weeklong exhibit at the Oregon State Capitol and will take place noon Monday, November 8 to noon Friday, November 12. The exhibit will include uniforms from each service branch with a biography of the person who served in the uniform, coming from the Veterans of Foreign Wars #661 Uniform Display Museum. Each uniform will be accompanied by the appropriate service flag, which are on loan from the Oregon Department of Veterans Affairs.

The Capitol will also decorate the state seal in colors of the United States.

Due to public health concerns, the annual choral performance scheduled the day before the holiday and the color guard has been canceled this year.

The Capitol is closed on Veterans Day, Thursday, November 11.

This is a free exhibit open to the public. Parking is metered around the Capitol. This event is part of the Capitol History Gateway Project produced by the Visitor Services Department and is funded by the Oregon State Capitol Foundation.

For those looking for a more formal presentation, the Oregon Department of Veterans Affairs will be hosting an event at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, November 10.
